[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 24.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Lawrence, of Ohio, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That public justice and national security demand that as soon as may be practicable Jeff. Davis, the representative man of the rebellion, should have a fair and impartial trial in the highest appropriate civil tribunal of the country for treason, the most flagrant in character by him committed, in order that the Constitution and laws may be fully vindicated and [illegible] clearly established and affirmed that treason is a crime and that the offence is not to be [illegible] and at the same time that the question may be judicially settled finally and forever [illegible] of its [illegible] that public justice and national security require that in case of the conviction of the [illegible] Jefferson Davis the sentence of the law should be carried into effect in order that the Constitution and law may be fully vindicated and faithfully executed and the truth clearly established that treason is a crime and that traitors should be punished; that in like manner and for like reasons, such of the most culpable of the chief instigators and conspirators of the rebellion as may be necessary to satisfy the demands of public justice and furnish security for the future, and those criminally responsible for the murder and starvation of Union prisoners of war, should be tried and punished for the high crimes of which they have been guilty, that justice should not fail of its purpose, and that all who are guilty of, or are responsible for the assassination of the late President, and the great offenders during the recent rebellion guilty of and responsible for the murder of and starvation of Union prisoners of war as well as those guilty of or responsible for other unparalleled violation of the laws of warfare or amenable to and should be tried, convicted and punished by a military tribunal authorized by the United States as recognized by the common laws of war, and civilized nations whenever and so far as may be necessary to secure the ends of justice; that the Committee on Judiciary be instructed to inquire what legislation, if any, may be necessary to provide juries for treason trials and to carry into effect the purposes of the foregoing resolutions, and that said Committee report by bill or otherwise.

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution that General Howard, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau, be directed to inform this House whether any rebel property, allotted by him to the freedmen, has been subsequently restored to rebels.

Suffrage in the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—On a test vote to-day in this city, on negro suffrage, the vote stood [illegible] seventy five in favor and seven thousand against.

The friends of the suffrage abstained from taking part in the election, preferring to petition Congress.

Senator Wilson's Bill.

The following is a synopsis of Wilson's Bill, introduced to-day, to maintain and enforce freedom of the blacks.

The preamble recites that Congress submitted an amendment to the Constitution of the several States for the abolition of slavery and a final proclamation has been made that such amendment has been ratified by three fourths of the States. The bill provides that all laws, ordinances, and regulations in any State or Territory recognizing inequality of civil rights or immunities among the inhabitants in consequence of race or color be null and void, and rendering it illegal to make or enforce such laws hereafter.

Section 2d provides that the inhabitants of any State, without distinction of color, be entitled to make contracts, sue and be sued, testify in courts, purchase or sell real estate and have an equal benefit of all laws for the security of person and property.

Sec. 3 provides that any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine and imprisonment. The proceedings under this section in insurrectionary States may be made in military courts till the civil courts are re-established.

Sec. 4 provides that defendants in any action in any court, who shall claim any rights under this act by way of defence, may remove by petition such suits into the proper District or Circuit Court.

Heavy Snows and severe Cold.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—A dispatch from Lawrence, Kansas, says the stage which has just arrived from Santa Fe reports heavy snow all the way. Great suffering exists among the freighters. The cattle are dying in large numbers, of cold and starvation.

West of Fort Learn(?) the Indians are peaceable, but it is feared they will not remain so long.

A heavy snow storm prevailed yesterday throughout the whole northwest. The weather is very cold. The thermometer this morning, ranged from zero to [illegible] degrees below zero at various points. The coldest point is at St. Paul, Min., where they have two feet of snow.

Southerners leave Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—A caucus of the Southern delegations was held last night at which it was determined to go home and not return until March. The impression among them is that their chances of admission are not sufficiently definite to warrant staying here.

The Secretary of War has instructed General Canby, commanding the Department of Louisiana, not to recognize any claims arising in that State under the [illegible] sections of the act of Congress to restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims. The following are the regulations adopted by the Department for the adjustment of these claims:

1st. Captured or abandoned property sold or otherwise alienated by the United States, cannot be restored, nor can any claim for rents, services, or damages of such property be [illegible] for the period anterior to its occupation under the amnesty proclamation or special pardon of the President. No claims for rent, services or damages of such property taken for public use will be considered for any period anterior to the [illegible] occupation by the troops of the United States. The claims must be accompanied [illegible] evidence of the reception of amnesty [illegible] or the testimony of disinterested witnesses [illegible] required by the accounting officers of the Department to establish the [illegible] loyalty [illegible] to the origin of the [illegible] and continuous thereafter.

Resolution of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—In the House, Hubbard, of Connecticut, offered a resolution declaring that the government of the United States ought [illegible] any [illegible] any nation on this continent by the [illegible] European power. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

[illegible] offered a resolution [illegible] the President's annual message [illegible] pledging the support of the House [illegible] the principles enunciated in it.

[illegible] Clark, of Indiana, offered a [illegible] inquiry [illegible] made [illegible] the [illegible] of admitting a Delegate in Congress to represent the District of Columbia. Passed.

The House went into Committee of the Whole and [illegible] [illegible] the speech made by [illegible] Pennsylvania.

In the Senate, the following Committee on [illegible] construction was [illegible] Fessenden [illegible] Howard [illegible] New York [illegible] of Michigan, Harris of Maryland [illegible]

[illegible] other business of importance was transacted in the Senate.

A small part [illegible] columns [illegible]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—In the Senate a resolution of Howard, of Michigan [illegible] was adopted asking the President on what account Jeff. Davis is confined and why not tried, &c.?

Sumner, of Mass., presented a petition from colored citizens of Tennessee, asking that the Congressional delegation from that State be not admitted till the State recognizes the rights of colored people.

Howard, of Michigan, presented the petition of 1,700 colored citizens of South Carolina, for such legislation as will insure them political rights.

Stewart, of Nevada, addressed the Senate in reply to Sumner's [illegible] [illegible] the theory that the Southern States are out of the Union and reduced to a territorial condition. He also argued that the North is not justified in forcing negro suffrage upon the South which holds negro political rights from the negroes in the Northern States.

Sumner, of Massachusetts, replied in favor of his bill. He did not think the President would separate from the party that elected him. The President has made no issue with Congress. He thought it our duty to give the President manly, generous and honest support and to look to him with hope and confidence, but to be as inflexible as [illegible] with the cause of impartial and universal liberty in this country.

In the House, Ashley, of Nevada, appeared and took his seat.

The Speaker named the following gentlemen as regents on the part of the House of the Smithsonian Institute: Rollins, of New Hampshire, Farnsworth and Garfield.

The following committee on Mines was named: Higby, of California, Ashley, of Nevada, Cobb, of Wisconsin, Strouse, Penn., Briggs, of Michigan, Ashley, of Ohio, Henderson, of Oregon, Allison, of Iowa, and Noell, of Missouri.

Conkling, offered a resolution asking the President on what ground Jefferson Davis, Clay, Mallory and Yule are held in confinement.

Henderson, of Oregon, offered a bill making an appropriation to reimburse Oregon for expenses incurred in suppressing Indian hostilities.

A bill was introduced to pay $800,000 to Pennsylvania soldiers called out to repel invasion in 1863.

Both Houses adjourned till January 5, 1866.

Julian, of Indiana, has introduced and had referred his bill of last session of Congress, providing for the sale of mineral lands.

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Paris correspondent of the London Post says it is generally believed in official circles that Spain will present her demands against Chili. England and France will remain neutral, while the United States will espouse the cause of Chili. It is thought the expected visit of the Empress Charlotte, to France, is preliminary to Maximillian's return to Paris. The papers are strictly forbidden to speak on Mexican affairs. The total deaths from cholera in Paris, from its outbreak to November 30th, was 60,077. On the 30th November there were six new cases, and four deaths. Letters from Panama say, indications are positive that Peru will declare in favor of Chili. She has sent at once two screw steam frigates of forty guns, very fast, and two screw sixteen gun corvettes, besides a new small steamer that can be made serviceable in various ways. Advices from Panama report the discovery of rich gold mines in the vicinity of Jywaco and Barbacoas, in the State of Kauca, New Granada. Four men, in eight days, took out 30 pounds.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The President has nominated Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, as Minister to Mexico, in place of Gen. Logan, who declined. A committee of the legislature of Mississippi is at Washington to petition the President to pardon Jeff. Davis. The people of Richmond are frightened over anticipated insurrections among negroes. There is no official information from the French Government. The Emperor [illegible] to withdraw French troops from Mexico.

Gen. Valkenberg, of New York, has been nominated Minister to Japan. Speaker Colfax having been named as a candidate for U. S. Senator, to succeed Senator Lane, by an Indiana paper, the gentleman writes a letter to the editor, saying he is not a candidate for that place; if he is to remain in public life, he prefers to continue in the House.

The safe of the Sanitary Commission, at Philadelphia, was robbed last night, of six thousand dollars, belonging to the chief clerk. The suit of the Union Bank against Ketchum & Sons resulted in a verdict of $257,000 for plaintiff. Oage(?) & Lakon, railroad contractors at Oberlin, Ohio, have left for parts unknown, victimizing laborers and others, to the amount of $30,000.

The Gov. General of Canada has refused to accept the resignation of Geo. Brown as [illegible] minister. Brown offered his resignation on account of difference of opinion on leading measures with other members of the cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—A paymaster was robbed in one of our city banks, to-day, of fifty thousand dollars. The January interest of the public debt, amounting to fifteen millions, is now ready. There is reason to believe that several Mexican privateers will shortly sail from ports on Atlantic and Pacific, to prey upon French commerce. Most of the Southern members of Congress have gone home, the charges of hotels being more than they could stand. Nearly all Northern members have gone home also. It is said that a number of rebel officials will soon be arrested.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The World's dispatch says: A quorum of the committee on ways and means and appropriations will remain in session during the recess of Congress. Secretary McCulloch arrived at the Astor House yesterday. His visit is entirely unusual.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The Herald's dispatch says: Congress will be called upon for further appropriations for the support of indigent Indians during winter, and intimates that eleven millions of dollars will be necessary. Western tribes are represented as being in a destitute condition. A letter to the Secretary of the Interior from Gen. Sibley says: Large numbers of Indians assembled at Fort Rice and elsewhere and across the river who manifested most friendly feeling for the whites and are quite willing to enter into most liberal treaties.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The Herald's special says: Persons interested in patents, who have been led to believe that it is intended to obtain through Congress very essential modification of patent laws, are authoritatively informed that no material change in such laws will be asked.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The World's special says: The Department of State concluded its instructions to our Minister to Mexico, who will be dispatched at once for the seat of government and remain with the President of the Republic and will follow him wherever he may go, thus making active demonstrations to Maximilian of the policy which our Government intends to persist in. This gives offence to the French Minister. The Tribune issued an extra last evening on Mexican affairs. Its information purports to come from London and declares that the understanding between Napoleon and Maximilian allows the former to withdraw the French troops from Mexico whenever Maximilian's payments should be [illegible] months in arrears. Senor Garcia, Peruvian Minister to this Government, has been recalled. His recent manifesto against the President of Peru produced this recall. Senor Garcia's successor is not announced. The Consul at New York has also been removed. The State Department is in receipt of dispatches from our Minister to Chili, showing that the war between Spain and Chili is still progressing. All the principal ports are blockaded. The commander of the squadron is only waiting instructions from the Spanish Government for sanction before active operations. The Admiral who is commanding the squadron off Valparaiso had grossly insulted our Minister, H. H. Nelson. The American and English merchants and residents are very indignant at his conduct and have laid the matter before their respective Governments.

Treasurer [illegible] has all the schedules prepared [illegible] to pay interest on the registered [illegible] the Government [illegible] commenced paying them early last week.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING JANUARY 1, 1866

Our New Year's Salutation.

"Happy New Year to all!" are words which to-day express a wish far more full of hope than the like salutation has been for years before. In 1866, the peace and quiet and prosperity which our people long for will, as we all trust, be fully realized. The cloud of war that hung over the country, casting its shadow across the path of every one who had the soul of a patriot and a heart to feel for his country in its tribulations, is wholly dispelled. Our temple of Janus is closed and earnestly will every one pray that its terrible doors may be opened nevermore.

Blessed again with peace, and with a prospect of the obtainment for our country of far more than it has ever yet, even in the days of its highest prosperity, enjoyed, with all doubts about our future removed, and with the promise of such prosperity as we have not before known, the words, "A happy New Year" can now be understood to have a larger meaning than on the days when the years just preceding the present were born.

A happy New Year then, to all. And may 1866 be the harvest season of peace, contentment and happiness, just as the few past years have been a season of trial, of difficulty, and of patient working.

The Difficulty Between Spain and Chile.

Until recently, the opinion had been generally prevalent that the present quarrel between Spain and Chile would soon find terms of accomodation and that Spain as the assailing power, would not bring on actual war. But this belief, as late dispatches show, was wholly an error. What was regarded a while ago as a mere probability that hostilities might chance to ensue, has grown more definite and positive, until now, it has become a matter of certainty. Spain claims to have been insulted; and when an adversary is weak and the danger of receiving punishment is small, Castilian pride always refuses to be appeased, and invariably makes every little affront a pretext for war, pillage and devastation.

In attacking Chile, Spain's purpose is either to make her pay a heavy tribute or reduce her to her former condition as a dependency of the Spanish kingdom. No quarrel could possibly be more [illegible] than the one Spain now makes with Chile; nor is it conceivable that it ever would have been undertaken, were it not the purpose of Spain either to unscrupulously subvert the Chilean Government or to compel the people of that country to purchase immunity from the ravages of war by paying all the extortionate demands that may be made upon them.

Until within a short period, the relations between the two countries had been of a character the most friendly and satisfactory. The rupture is [illegible] traceable to the insolent and overbearing conduct of the Admiral commanding the Spanish fleet in these waters. By his vain display of power, and by the contemptuous and hostile manner in which he treated the republican [illegible] of Peru and Chile, he created in the minds of the people a strong dislike against himself and the accredited representatives of Spain. The treatment which these worthies in turn received, was of a kind, which though not marked by violence, could be construed into insult. No explanation would be accepted by the Spanish Government, and orders were shortly sent to Admiral Pareja to blockade the Chilean coast. Preparations were also made for active war, and now, as we are told, Spain is about to begin in earnest her work of aggression and spoliation.

This conduct on the part of Spain, is another manifestation of the disposition of European monarchists to interfere with and destroy the republics of America. Of these yet weak nations which are struggling to maintain republican institutions against the aggression of foreign despotism, the United States ought to be guardian. It is a growing determination among our people to protect their neighbor republicans and thus aid in [illegible] popular government throughout this continent.

Chile is the best and most deserving of sympathy, of all the Spanish-American republics. Revolutions have there, as elsewhere, been attempted, but none of them have proved successful. The [illegible] of government, so prevalent among the [illegible] republics, have not been known in Chile. Her people have shown a better capacity for self-government than those of any of the adjacent countries. She has a school system which far surpasses in excellence that of any other South American States. Except herself, none of the South American republics tolerate freedom of religious worship. She has been prosperous and progressive; and if she has to yield to the power of Spain, her overthrow will be a heavy loss to republicanism in South America.

CURRENCY MATTERS.—The New York Herald says, "Secretary McCulloch, we have reason to know, desires a restoration of specie payments as soon as it can be done practically, and in fact, and not nominally, as was the case with the Bank of England from 1817 to 1825, but he also wishes that it shall be effected gradually, and with as little stirring of the elements that produce revolutions and panics as possible. He favors the funding of the currency in a quiet and easy manner, consuming a period of five or six years in the accomplishment of the work, at the end of which time he anticipates the complete reproduction of a healthy state of finance and a permanent restoration of the bullion basis, without being forced to undergo what England did from 1815 to 1825, in her attempts to emerge from her depreciated paper money condition." It is the opinion of the Herald that "if this policy be adopted and the natural course of trade nursed, strengthened by our growing wealth and increasing population, there need be no fear of the result, and the currency will assume, quite as soon as the necessities of trade demand, its normal condition.

THE FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT.—The dispatches this morning, mention incidentally, that a proclamation has been issued by the President setting forth that as the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery has been ratified by three-fourths of the States, this Amendment is now a part of our fundamental law.

Senator Sumner is said to be the author of the remarkable article in the December number of the Atlantic Monthly, entitled "Clemency and Common Sense, a Curiosity of Literature with a Moral." The article is exceedingly interesting and powerful.

On the 14th ult., Henderson, of Oregon, offered a resolution in the House of Representatives that "treason against the United States is a crime and should be punished." The resolution passed unanimously.

A human skeleton has been discovered in Toledo by some workmen excavating an alley in the rear of Leak's block. It is supposed a murder was committed and the body buried there within two or three years back. The physicians who have examined the skull express the belief that the man was possessed of a strong mind, was firm, cautious, active and energetic in business and not disposed to be quarrelsome.

The trial of Frank Hight, Joshua S Doughty and Charles Watkins, young southern bloods, charged with murder of Capt Alex Headly of the 33d regiment U S C T, in Augusta Georgia, because he was walking with a mulatto girl has been concluded. Doughty and Watkins were acquitted. Hight was convicted and sentenced to be hung.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 23.

General News.

The Herald's dispatch says that the Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular relative to the release of property held for the violation of the revenue laws, stating that no collector of customs has authority to release any property which has been seized for violation of the laws upon the payment of the appraised valuation.

The Secretary of State by the direction of the President has addressed a letter to Provisional Governor Holden of North Carolina, relieving him from his trust and expressing the President's acknowledgment of his loyalty and discretion which has marked his administration of affairs in that State. A copy of the letter has been sent to the Governor elect of North Carolina, which tenders the co-operation of the United States Government whenever it may be found necessary in effecting the early restoration of the Government property, one which or over which he has been called to have authority.

COLUMBIA, S C, Dec 22.—To Secretary Seward: The Legislature adjourned yesterday. Gov Perry has returned to his home in New York. Your dispatch has been forwarded him by mail. It will be very gratifying to the people of South Carolina that their government has been entrusted to those of their own selection, and in their name I thank you for the co-operation of the Government of the United States when found necessary in effecting the final restoration and permanent prosperity of our State. You must be assured of my unaltered purpose to aid in advancing the prosperity of the common country.

(Signed) JAMES L. ORR
Governor of South Carolina

CHICAGO, Dec 21.—It is stated in the Evening Journal on authority that Gerritt Smith, of New York has commenced suit in the United States Circuit Court against the Chicago Tribune, for alleged libel in saying that he feigned insanity in order to evade responsibility for his connection with the John Brown's Harper's Ferry raid. The Tribune laughs at the folly of the great reformer.

NEW YORK, Dec 23.—Henry Steers is building at Green Point a large wooden steamer for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, said to be the largest wooden steamer ever built. She will be of five thousand tons burden, three hundred and sixty feet long, fifty feet in breadth and thirty one feet in depth of hold. She will be constructed of the best material and will cost one million dollars in coin.

WASHINGTON, Dec 23.—Arrangements are being made for a meeting of colored delegates of the different States to urge upon Congress the propriety of granting the right of suffrage to the colored men of the United States. A preliminary meeting is to be held on the 8th of January, at which Fred Douglass and other prominent anti slavery orators are expected to be present.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that fifteen cents is the highest stamp duty required upon warehouse receipts whatever may be the value of the property imported.

The Treasury Department during the week ending to-day redeemed certificates to the amount of one million, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and interest bearing notes to the amount of four millions.

On the reassembling of Congress, a joint resolution will be offered and passed, proposing an amendment of the Constitution to the effect that qualified voters instead of gross population be the basis of representation.

The pardon business has grown dull and issuing such documents has almost ceased.

Secretary Stanton has returned from his visit to Ohio.

NEW ORLEANS, 23d.—The first regiment of U S cavalry has been ordered from New Orleans to Colorado, and will be distributed throughout the State in small garrisons.

Carl Schurz's Report.

The report of Gen Carl Schurz, on the condition of the South, was published in the New York Tribune this morning. It makes sixteen columns. Gen. Schurz says that at the time he went South he found the people recovering from the peculiar state of mind which the surrender of Lee had plunged them into and the public mind was despondent that if admission at some future time under whatever conditions had been promised, it would have been looked upon as a favor. The most uncompromising rebels proposed first leaving the country. He says he now finds four classes, whom he characterizes as follows:

First, They who having yielded submission to the National Government only when obliged to do so have a clear perception of the changes which have been produced by the war and honestly endeavor to accommodate themselves to the new order of things.

Second, Those whose principal object is to have the States duly restored to their position in the Union and the people of the States to the absolute control of their home concerns. They are ready, in order to obtain that object, for any ostensible concession that will not prevent them from arranging things to suit their taste so soon as that object is attained.

Third, Incorrigibles who still indulge in the swagger which was so customary before and during the war, and still prevails, for a time when the so called Southern Confederacy will achieve its independence. This class consists mostly of young, loitering persons of the towns and of the country.

Fourth, Persons who have no definite idea about the circumstances under which they live, and about the course they have to follow, whose intellects are weak, but whose prejudices and impressions are strong, and who are apt to be carried along by those who know how to appeal to them. The latter of these classes, Schurz says, are agreed that further resistance to the power of the National Government is useless and submission to its authority a matter of necessity. All movements in favor of separation from the Union have therefore been practically abandoned, and resistance to our military arms on that score has ceased.

The General thinks that the loyalty produced by the irresistible pressure of force is decidedly of a negative character. He gives proofs, in letters from Federal generals and others of outrages committed by the late rebels, and of their hostile attitude if the troops are withdrawn. He introduces testimony from officers of the freedmen's bureau, and dwells at considerable length upon the statements of negroes, and the sentiments of the whites towards them. He thinks justice can be secured only by extending the franchise. In the course of his remarks he says the slaves are emancipated in point of form, but free labor has not yet been put in place of slavery in point of fact and now in the midst of the critical period of transition the [illegible] which originated the revolution is expected to turn over its whole future development to another power which from the beginning was hostile to its spirit leaving the class in whose favor it was made and completed without power to protect itself or to take part in that development.

It is understood in Washington that General Grant is to have a Christmas gift of the Carter house in what was known as Douglas row. The mansion was built for Senator Rice of Minnesota. Two others were built by Douglas and Breckinridge. John Minor Botts who is in Washington, commends the refusal of Congress to admit the southern members.

Fenian Outrages—The Freedmen's Labor

NEW YORK, Dec 21.—Charge of scandalous outrages on the Fenian Circle in Jersey City yesterday was made by Chas W. Norman living in that town, who alleges he was seized on the street on Friday night and dragged into a Fenian Lodge room, charged with being a British spy and was put upon trial and subjected to various indignities during the struggle which ensued but succeeded in making his escape.

At a planters meeting in Marlboro District S C, the planters held they would not contract with any freedmen who could not produce certificates of regular discharge from their former owners, that under no circumstances whatever would they rent land to work or permit them to live on their premises as employees.

The Pacific Railroad

WASHINGTON, Dec 25.—Washington dispatches say strong efforts have been made within a few days by interested parties to have the Secretary of the Treasury issue United States bonds to the Pacific Railroad Company for the alleged completion of twenty two miles west from Kansas. A protest is also entered against their issue. The whole matter is now under advisement.

Cholera in Turkey.

NEW YORK, Dec 21.—The Times's letters from Constantinople dated Nov 24th say the cholera continues to rage in the interior of Asia Turkey, Alphea Mountains and [illegible] and has been as malignant as at first in Constantinople. It is said one hundred died at Alpha of it. The epidemic again broke out in Constantinople and many of the cities of Turkey are still subject to periodical cases. The locusts are so abundant in Syria, it is feared that pestilence will be succeeded by famine at Alpha where everything is already doubled in prices.

Redress from England

NEW YORK, Dec 25.—Christmas was observed in business circles. The memorial of Upton of Boston, asking Congress to force redress from England for the destruction of the American sloop Nora by the pirate Alabama was published to-day. Damage claimed on the ground that the cargo was wholly English, but British authority refused to take notice of the affair.

Troubles with Negroes

NEW YORK, Dec 24.—A letter from Charleston says: Difficulty between the freedmen and planters on the islands along the South Carolina coast still continues. Some of the [illegible] proprietors with two of Gen Sickles' staff, recently went from Charleston to James Island for the purpose of having a conference with the negroes. On approaching in their boat they were met by about sixty armed negroes who would listen to no explanation, but threatened to fire on the first one of the party who stepped ashore. Two regiments of regular troops were afterwards sent to the island to put the freedmen under better subjection. Army officers in South Carolina are using every effort to dispel the impression of the negroes that the Government designs securing them in the possession of plantations.

A letter from San Domingo says: The recent Spanish invasion left death and desolation wherever the Spanish troops penetrated. The invaders did not leave anything but destroyed or carried off property indiscriminately regardless of the nationality of the owners. Many Americans, and Englishmen suffered to very large amounts.

News from Yucatan to the 5th inst says: The journey of the Empress of Mexico through Yucatan continued to be attended with enthusiastic ovations. At Merida the Empress made donations to the free schools, hospitals, cathedrals, and some three thousand dollars for distribution among the poor.

The Regular Army.

NEW YORK, Dec 21.—A bill which is framed to be introduced into Congress, provides for an army of one hundred thousand men. The requirements in each branch of the service are to consist of three battalions of eight hundred men each—twenty four hundred men in all. The maximum of artillery is two batteries to each regiment. The chiefs of bureaus the adjutants inspectors Quartermasters and Commissary Generals and the Brigadiers, and staff vacancies, are to be filled from officers having the right to apply for such positions, and passing as in the French service. Each arm of the grand staff is to consist of one General, four Lieutenant Generals and four Major Generals. The army is to be divided into four corps. The country into four divisions, the latter to be commanded by Lieutenant Generals. Brevets of this grade, to be limited to two. The pay is to be so arranged that all allowances will be merged in the pay proper. The General is to receive a salary equivalent to that now received by General Grant—$13,000. Lieutenant Generals about $9,000. Major Generals, $5,000, Colonels 3,000 and so on down to 2d Lieutenants whose pay is to be $1,000. Staff officers will receive additional pay of $50 to $200, according to grade and rank. This is the outline of the proposed bill.

The Fenians in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec 23.—It is announced that a number of adopted citizens in New York, got up a petition to the Grand Jury calling for the indictment of the Fenian President, Senate and Cabinet. Among the reasons given for the indictments, are the following: Issuing bonds of a republic which has no existence, conspiring and banding together for the purpose of invading and levying war on a peaceful and neighboring people; forming clans, factions and parties which are likely to endanger the lives and property of the people of this municipality; spending money they have obtained in fashionable extravagance and high living, when many of the honest folks who have subscribed to it, have to live on very low diet.

Money Market—"Loyalty" in Virginia.

NEW YORK, Dec 23.—Gold weak, in anticipation of the payment of ten millions of interest on the gold-bearing bonds. On the 1st of January, quoted at 145⅛. The demand for money is not so active.

Secretary McCulloch entertained his friends at the Astor House yesterday. In the evening he attended the New England dinner. His visit to New York has no financial significance.

Letters from Richmond say that a strong feeling exists among the rebel members of the Legislature in favor of going into another election of United States Senators, but they are restrained by fear of incurring the displeasure of the President. The favorite candidates of these men are John Randolph Tucker and R M T Hunter.

Abandoned Lands.

NEW YORK, Dec 23.—The officers of the Freedman's Bureau in Virginia have a large amount of abandoned property on hand, although 40,000 acres have been restored to the original owners. Nearly 60,000 acres remain in possession of the bureau. This does not include city property.

The steamer George Leary run over an oyster vessel near Fortress Monroe and sunk her with all hands on board. The people of Richmond, Petersburg Norfolk and other points in Virginia are much alarmed in anticipation of negro insurrections. In the meantime, the negroes hold public meetings and declare by resolutions that they have not the remotest idea of insurrection or any other riotous measure. Hasty computation makes the losses by fire for the past two weeks foot up about $3,000,000. Many think this estimate too low.

Five Men Suffocated by Gas.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—A terrible accident occurred in this city last night, by which five men were killed. The facts are as follows. Six men went into a German hotel of a low order on West Lake street and asked for lodgings. They were all put in one room containing three beds. During the night a gas pipe sprung aleak and poured a large volume of gas into the room. The occupants of the room not making their appearance in the morning, the keeper of the house went to the room and rapped on the door. Getting no response, he broke open the door and found five men dead and a sixth senseless. By the application of restoratives he will probably recover.

The Anti-Suffrage Men of Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The seven thousand persons in Washington who voted against negro suffrage in that city are going to petition the President to remove Bowen, Postmaster, because he is in favor of negro suffrage.

Louisiana Matters—Fears of a Negro Insurrection.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec 22.—The Louisiana Legislature adjourned to day until the 4th of January. The House failed to pass the usual appropriation bills. The Governor vetoed a bill suspending the collection of taxes for 1861–62–63 and 64 on the ground that it would be a relief to those who had attempted to destroy the Government and those who were absent during the war, while Union men remained and paid their taxes.

The Vicksburg Journal has advices which it deems reliable of an alarming character from the Yazoo. The people of the country are flying to the towns for protection and the negroes are represented as arming themselves and claim that between now and Christmas land must be given them or they will take it by force. The colored troops stationed in the country are espousing the cause of the negroes and much trouble is apprehended.

Gen Grant Going to the Rio Grande.

NEW YORK, Dec 26.—A special says that it's currently reported in most positive manner at Washington that Gen Grant will immediately after holidays start in a flag ship of Gulf squadron for Rio Grande. Commander Winslow sailed for same destination in the Champion for New Orleans leaving his flag ship for accommodation of Gen Grant.

It is the general opinion that the vacancy caused in the U S Supreme Court by the death of Judge Catron will be filled by a Judge belonging to one of the Southern States, but the appointment will not be made for some time.

A number of influential military officers who have been in service fighting Indians on the plains are besieging the President with suggestions and plans for employment of military force against Latter Day Saints in default of an opportunity for employment against Maximilian and Louis Napoleon.

CLEAN STREETS.—The Commissioner of streets Mr Samuel S[illegible] has been calculating a force of the provisions of Ordinance No [illegible] in reference to the cleaning of streets The ordinance provides for the [illegible] sweeping of streets once in each week—Mondays [illegible] during the months of the year By [illegible] ordinance, that it may be applicable to those streets improved permanently and that the cleaning [illegible] applied on Fridays and Saturdays we think it would be effective and useful Mr Shaw [illegible] favorable to clean streets but in this respect as in most other branches pertaining to his official duties he is without authority except explicitly It is recommended and earnestly [illegible] that the Council at its next meeting will so amend this ordinance as to insure clean streets [illegible] crossings are [illegible] and productive of [illegible] [illegible] their wet and [illegible] than [illegible] we think [illegible] is [illegible] progress is everybody's business [illegible] from the work we cannot expect [illegible] things [illegible] the Street Commissioner the authority to [illegible] there will be a different state of things

OUR FRIEND FROM VICTORIA.—The second presentation of this drama was rendered at the Willamette Theater very successfully on Saturday evening by Mr Ward's company followed by the old and favorite play of "Toodles." The prologue on the first occasion, was productive of the most successful sell of an audience ever occurring in Portland Just as the manager was making his apology before the curtain a policeman happened to be walking down the aisle in the direction of the Parquette and was stunned by the impudent sallies of certain of the audience who had sworn not to accept of Hamlet but were determined to see Our Friend from Victoria He had stretched out his arm for the purpose of taking a fellow out of the pit who was clamorous for the play as represented on the bill, when "Our Friend from Victoria" attracted his attention to the dress circle and "with [illegible] the officer all wo[illegible] the play to proceed There was a fine audience, and the entertainment was well received The glorious drama of Charles the Twelfth and other attractions form the bill for to-night

COMMERCIAL INFORMATION.—On the morning of the 28th we quoted the Marine Gazette, of Astoria, as authority for saying that the Pacific and Active sailed on the 24t for their respective destinations and the bark Jane A Falkenburg was still at Young's River We have since learned that the Pacific nor Active went to sea until Friday last the former arriving at San Francisco yesterday The steamers lay at the mouth of the river a week The Falkenburg, instead of laying at Young's river went to sea on Friday the 21st On Friday last the 28th a bark was seen off the bar, supposed to be the A A Eldridge from Honolulu On the same day Friday last the bark Live Yankee left Oak Point for Astoria We are indebted to the purser of the steamer John H Couch for this information The Couch arrived from below early on Saturday morning and will return this morning.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.—No paper will be issued from this office to-morrow

DUPONT OF FUN.—The dove was the first newspaper carrier when one morning it went out and brought a leaf for Noah It contained a paragraph on the weather, notifying him that the heavy storm had subsided

"Old Bumblebee," was the cognomen of Mr T., of Newburyport He gained the title from the fact of his catching a bumblebee one day while he was shingling his barn, and in attempting to destroy the insect with a hatchet, cut off the ends of his thumb and forefinger, letting the insect go unharmed Uncle T., in one of his oblivious freaks, nailed his left arm so firmly between two boards of a fence he was putting up, that he had to call for assistance to get extricated from his self imprisonment He once put a button on a gate instead of a post. But the rarest freak of all was when he ran through the streets, with his hands about three feet asunder held before him begging the passers-by not to disturb him, as he had got the measure of a doorway with him

At the farewell supper given by Sir Morton Peto at Delmonico's in New York, a short time since, General Hooker made a hit in a speech The host being a distinguished Englishman a good deal had been said about friendship and peace with the mother country, but the General took occasion to say that he did not wholly agree to it He wanted peace and would fight for it—but our national honor was more precious than peace, and he was for honor first and that, too at the hands of all nations There was a good applause at that, and the General sat down

A Cleveland copper speculator fell asleep in church, and was waked up by the pastor's reading, "Surely there is a vein for the silver and a place for the gold where they find it" Jumping to his feet he shook his book at the minister, crying, "I'll take five thousand feet"

THE ORIGIN OF COAL.—Various opinions have been put forth respecting the origin of our coal formations. The following is by R. Hunt, F. R. S. (author of "The Poetry of Science,") in a late article to the St James (London) Magazine: It has been somewhat too hastily said that coal is formed directly from wood, and that much of it is found to retain its woody structure. There is great doubt on this point. That wood may be eventually converted into coal is admitted—but in changing, it entirely loses the form of wood—retains no evidence of fiber. It may, under the influence of heat and moisture, be converted into a bituminous mass, which is eventually consolidated into coal; but we cannot discover any evidence of wood being transmuted directly to coal. The remains of woody trees found fossil in the coal measure strata may become limestone, may be iron ore—certain it is they are never coal. The probability is, that the coal mass itself was produced from cactus-like plants, from club mosses, or peat mosses, or from aquatic plants, either marine or fresh water. The vegetable mass, whatever may have been its origin, from which our beds of fossil fuel is derived, may have been formed from plants which grew on the spot where we now find it, and the under clay, as it is called, is supposed to be the soil in which the plants grew; or it may have been removed by the waters in a plastic state, floated out into the deltas or seas, and eventually, in obedience to the law of gravity, have sunk to the bed of the then existing waters.

Knowing that many of these coal beds are now several thousand feet below the surface, we have either to suppose—if we adopt the first hypothesis—a gradual subsidence of the earth to the depth at which the coal is now found; or, if we prefer the second, to imagine the filling up of the seas after the coal has been deposited, by enormous beds of sandstone or of shale. Sir Henry de la Beche describes a section near Swansea having a total thickness 3,246 feet; in this there are 10 principal masses of sandstone, one of these 500 feet thick. They are separated by masses of shale, varying in thickness from 10 to 50 feet. The interstratified coal beds, 16 in number, are generally from one to five feet thick—one of them, which has two or three layers of clay interposed, attaining nine feet. Taking this instance only, we learn that there have been 16 different formations of coal; that these have—each one of them—been covered up with hundreds of feet of sandstone and shale. The subsistence of the earth's crust is surrounded with difficulties of no common order—the filling up an ancient sea to the depth of more than 3,000 feet requires conditions which we can scarcely contrive to have existed—and in either case we seem to require ages of repose, during which a beautiful Flora drank in the sunshine, [illegible] by ages during which sand was deposited, bearing down with it but little evidence of th[illegible] living vegetable life. Science has advanced far into the secrets of the earth's changes; but let us not deceive ourselves by supposing we have as yet heard the voice of Nature proclaiming the true phenomena of our coal formations.

GRANDMOTHERS.—Is it not a fact that we are accustomed to associate a certain idea of worldliness and selfishness of wickedness, in fact—with grandmothers, which does not arise in our minds when we picture to ourselves an aged grandfather? We are indebted, in a great measure, to the novel writers for this impression; but we have no reason to question the faithfulness of the picture. We rarely have the idea of a wicked old grandfather, but we often, I am afraid, have the idea of a wicked old grandmother. There is the usual ideal of the wicked old woman in a wig, walking with a crutch-stick, match-making for worldly gain, [illegible] lying, telling improper [illegible], gambling at cards, and cheating [illegible]. Is it a true picture, a faithful likeness? I am afraid somewhat it is. There are good grandmothers, of course; but there are bad ones, and they are more often bad than the grandfathers. But we must make reasonable allowance for [illegible]. A man in his young and middle-age days can have his fling, his fill of pleasure. He can sow his wild oats to the last grain. The wild [illegible] enables him to see the [illegible] of things. Not so with a woman. Her [illegible] days are a period of restraint; her married [illegible]. If she be wickedly inclined, it is not until she becomes an old grandmother that she can have her fling. The old [illegible] has done with the forward ways of the [illegible], the old grandmother begins to take [illegible]. There are certain outward attributes [illegible] which accord with this view of her character. While the old grandfather meekly bows his bald head of blanched hair to the [illegible] of Time, the old grandmother endeavors to bear up against him with a wig or a false [illegible]. She is a [illegible] sometimes, and will go out into the field when the harvest is fully [illegible] with the old gentleman who [illegible] the scythe. She [illegible] him to drop his [illegible] down beside her, and she [illegible] with him, and taps him over his old [illegible] with her fan. This grandmother tricks [illegible] that the old man will [illegible] and will not suddenly rise up, take [illegible] to his hand, and cut her down with the rest. And so she goes on pursuing worldly [illegible] the very last. This, of course, is only true of [illegible] old women; but is true of them all, that [illegible] are more troubled about the world's affairs [illegible] that [illegible] they are disposed to [illegible], a stronger passion [illegible] of any weakness; [illegible] its influence. [illegible] old gentlemanly [illegible] a good old gentle[illegible] period of [illegible] but a [illegible] to the last, and will die [illegible] clutching them. Not that she is [illegible] than man, but her life [illegible] with an inordinate [illegible] is afraid of being alone and [illegible] with money. The old man has not this [illegible]. At a certain stage he cares little what becomes of him. He will go to the workhouse [illegible], while the woman will, of all [illegible] avoid that. All the Year Round.

NAVAL LOSSES DURING THE WAR.—It has been [illegible] that during the entire war the navy has lost only 1,466 men in killed, and 1,636 in [illegible], out of the 75,000 sailors and marines who have been on the rolls. This is inclusive of all [illegible] in the [illegible] battles on the Mississippi, at [illegible], Mobile, Fort Fisher, and elsewhere, in [illegible] the united [illegible] of Farragut and Porter [illegible] achieved with less loss of life than that which has [illegible] in a single battle by a single division of troops. This is due in part to the fact that the enormous range of our navy [illegible] in the main kept our men out of musket range. It is worthy of note that the whole expense of the navy since the beginning of the war, including the construction and equipment of all the vessels and their maintenance, has been less than $22,000,000 or only about 7½ per cent. of the national debt. Moreover, we have at the close of the war, ships enough to show for the money spent to constitute what is probably a better navy than that of either of the European powers. We have constructed since 1861 210 vessels of war, all of which are of the most approved models, and contain all the appliances of modern offensive and defensive warfare.

The rebel Alabama generals are now pretty much all reconstructed. H. D. Clayton is at home farming in Barbour county; Alf Baker is practicing law in the same region; Cullen A. Battle has [illegible] a law office at Tuskegee; John T. Morgan has done the same at Selma; Peter Roddy has settled in Lauderdale; S. A. M. Wood in Florence, at the law, and John M. Withers and Zachariah C. Deas are in Mobile. They have submitted to the decree of war with a good grace, that gives hope that they will lend a helping hand hereafter to the advancement of the country.

LETTERS REMAINING UNCLAIMED in the Post Office at Portland, State of Oregon, January 1, 1866:

To obtain any of these, the applicant must call for advertised letters, give the date of this list, and pay one cent for advertising.

If not called for within one month, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Free delivery of letters by carriers, at the residences of owners, may be secured by observing the following rules:

1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as to the post office and State.

2. Head letters with the writer's post office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be sent accordingly.

3. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked, in the lower left-hand corner, with the word "Transient."

4. Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

N. B.—A request for the return of a letter to the writer if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed with the writer's name, post-office, and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer.—Sec. 28, Law of 1863.

THE STANDARD

AMERICAN BILLIARD TABLES!

AND COMBINATION CUSHIONS.

MESSRS. PHELAN & COLLENDER

WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of persons wanting Billiard Tables to the great superiority of the above tables, manufactured exclusively at their establishment.

At the Billiard Congress of 1863, composed of all the first-class players of America, it was unanimously resolved that tables of our manufacture should be used at all matches for the Championship, as the best and only reliable tables.

These Billiard Tables have received the unqualified approval of the best players and most competent judges, who have universally pronounced them unequaled for general excellence and durability.

Seven distinct patents for improvements in Billiard Tables have been granted to us by the United States Patent Office, and we have lately obtained a Patent from the French Government, for our improvement in Billiard Cushions.

We employ, in the construction of our tables, a variety of machines specially made for the purpose, by means of which we are enabled to insure a scientific and mechanical accuracy hitherto unknown in Billiard manufacture.

Having a long experience and thorough knowledge of all the appliances of Billiards, and constantly on hand a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned materials, we are prepared to furnish everything required in the Billiard line with unprecedented dispatch.

The eminent French Billiard Player, M. Berger, has published the following opinion:

"NEW YORK, 20 August, 1861.

"On the eve of leaving the United States, I am happy to declare to all amateurs of Billiards that, after a tour of eleven months through the principal cities, I have been enabled to judge in a satisfactory manner of the superiority of the Billiard Tables manufactured by Phelan & Collender. The system of manufacturing is so superior, that I am happy to introduce their style of cushion into France. They have united to their manufacture of American Billiard Tables that of the French Tables, of remarkable excellence and beauty. For these reasons, I am happy to make this declaration.

"BERGER, CLAUDIUS, Prof. of Billiards, Paris."

Parties ordering from us will find our prices as low as good work can possibly be made for. We sell first-class articles at a fair price, and will not make an inferior article at any price.

Orders by mail carefully and promptly executed. Illustrated Catalogues and Price Lists sent by mail. The "BILLIARD CUE," a journal published in the interest of Billiards, and containing details of all novelties, a copious record of Billiard news, and everything of interest to amateurs of Billiards, sent free on application.

M. E. HUGHES,

730 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal., is our only authorized Agent on the Pacific coast, to whom all orders should be addressed.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THIS ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS AT tended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

Mercurial Diseases

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup changes the system entirely of all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches,

And all other difficulties of the kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, and often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

Constitution Life Syrup

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS, either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast.

As a general Blood-Purifying Agent, the Life Syrup stands unrivalled by any preparation in the world.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's friend and the Rich Man's blessing. Buy it, take it, and be cured. It is universal in its effects.

Information Wanted.

OF THE WHEREABOUTS OF FERDINAND STRANG, a native of Germany. A little more than three months ago he left Lewiston, Idaho Territory, stating that he was going on a few days' tour to look at the neighboring country. Since that time he has not been heard of. He left a wife with several children at Lewiston. It is feared that he has met with an accident, or that he has been foully dealt with. Any person who can give information concerning him will confer a favor by addressing a letter to Mrs. Wilhelmina Strang, Lewiston, or to Louis Arnold, Portland, Oregon. no20d1m*
